BIOGRAPHY

HELEN AVERY

Director of Nature Programmes, Green Finance Institute

Helen leads nature programmes and GFI Hive at the Green Finance Institute, overseeing the Institute's initiatives to mobilise private capital into NbS and nature restoration.

Prior to joining the Institute she was Sustainable Finance Editor at Euromoney, spearheading the magazine's global coverage of social and environmental finance, impact investing, conservation finance, inclusive finance and inclusion and corporate responsibility.

Her passion lies in working with those bringing practical solutions to biodiversity loss, climate change and inequality.
